The first system of music consists of two vocal staves (Soprano and Bass) and a piano accompaniment. The vocal staves are currently empty, showing only the treble and bass clefs and the 4/4 time signature. The piano accompaniment is written in a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and begins with a melodic line in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand.

The second system of music continues the vocal and piano parts. The vocal staves remain empty. The piano accompaniment features a melodic line in the right hand with a dynamic marking of p (piano) and a bass line in the left hand with a dynamic marking of f (forte).

The third system of music continues the vocal and piano parts. The vocal staves remain empty. The piano accompaniment continues with a melodic line in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. A measure rest is indicated above the first measure of the vocal staves.

The fourth system of music continues the vocal and piano parts. The vocal staves remain empty. The piano accompaniment continues with a melodic line in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. A measure rest is indicated above the first measure of the vocal staves.
