stowed by thy bounteous hand. We feel it a pleasure to serve thee and love to obey thy command.
When dark clouds of trouble hang o'er us And threaten our peace to destroy, There is hope smiling brightly before us, and we know that deliverance is nigh. We doubt not the Lord nor his goodness. We've proved him in days that are past. The wicked who fight against Zion Will surely be smitten at last. We'll sing of his goodness and mercy. We'll praise him by day and by night. Re-joyce in his glorious gospel, And bask in its life giving light. Thus on to eternal perfection, The honest and faithful will While they who reject this glad message shall never such happiness know. We thank thee, Oh God, for a prophet!
